TESTIMONIALS

"Video Story Studio helped me to see a clear and concise way of communicating my messages. I'm eager to share these new videos and eager to do the process again."

Karissa Hanson
Founder of Virtual Works

"Video Story Studio's social media videos have turned out to be a huge success for our marketing strategy this year."

"WIA provides a high quality technical conference with a global audience every year in Columbus, Ohio and requires extreme attention to detail, production quality, and has a complex schedule. I have continued to work with Video Story Studio because of their level of expertise in this domain."

CAPABILITIES STATEMENT

BUSINESS SUMMARY

Since day one, our focus has been to help our clients identify and tell the story their audience needs to hear. Our philosophy is that genuine human connection is what attracts potential clients and closes sales—not flashy creative. And though we know that B2B and internal videos have a reputation of being boring (there, we said it), we don't think they have to be! In fact, they're our specialty. Leave it to us to turn talking-head videos into must-watch content
